

Kimberly VanKline

CULINARY STRATEGIST

Kimberly, a corporate professional with nearly two decades of experience, decided to take a leap of faith and exit Corporate America to follow her true passion – cooking and creating unique, upscale dining experiences for others. Her boutique catering service spread like fire via word of mouth! The way to her clients' hearts has undoubtedly, been through their mouths and she is so humbled that they insisted on singing her praises. Thoughtful recognition has allowed her to grow a robust portfolio of clients, from beaming brides, celebrities, socialites to high-powered executives.

Family is very important to Kimberly because as an only child she was raised by her mom and grandparents and as a family. They ate dinner at the dinner table every single day and on Sunday's her grandmother, Mama Bertie, made Sunday dinner every single Sunday she never missed one. That was the way they bonded and shared stories as a family. Kimberly still practices this with her bonus kids today and they help make dinners all the time. It's fun and they get to learn at the same time, it's what she loves most about her family, spending quality time in the heart of the home, the Kitchen.

Kimberly VanKline's future looks overwhelmingly bright! With private dining, wedding catering, and customized masterclasses in high demand, don't expect her to slow down anytime soon. Her goal is to always align food, passion, family, and joy, with innovation. A true culinary visionary, Kimberly VanKline is dedicated to continuing her development of cookbooks, culinary products, and creating phenomenal cuisines and "wow" dishes as she aims to provide the ultimate dining experience! Kimberly VanKline is just getting started and she will always have a seat for you at her table.

Each one teach one, are words that Kimberly believes in! With the firm belief that rising tides lift all boats, Kimberly is eager to inspire and teach the next generation of chefs and entrepreneurs. Throughout each year, Kimberly is dedicated to showing young women how to create their path to entrepreneurial success.